

Verde Village Property Owners Association (VVPOA) dba VVCC

1972 - founded to help these rural property owners get basic services such as roads, utilities, and fire department

1980's – 90's - the social center of Cottonwood with BBQ's, dances, craft shows, garden club . . .

2000's – less participation due to more food and entertainment options in the Verde Valley along with busy families

Now – connecting neighbors with neighbors to help each other as well as our properties and community resources

- 501-(c)4 non-profit organization
- supported by membership fees & gifts
- run by volunteer board members
- holds an annual meeting and open to input any time to build community
- sponsors events such as classes, dinners, clean-ups, craft sales
- actively seeks funds for maintaining our properties: clubhouse, ranch house, pond, pool, nature preserve, and parks
- not a compliance organization: report suspicious activity, abandoned vehicles, animal encroachment, weeds or trash to Yavapai County
